11 Appointments to Outside Bodies

Executive Councillors have reviewed the appointments made annually to public bodies and voluntary organisations (observer status).

Other than those appointments which the Council is obliged to make, it is recommended that appointments be rationalised for 2007/08 to those organisations/partnerships which help the Council progress its Medium Term Objectives. Appointees should receive briefings from officers and liaise with the relevant Executive Councillor. The appointee should report back when appropriate to the relevant Scrutiny Committee.

For those organisations that do not fit directly with Medium Term Objectives, it is recommended that the City Council no longer appoints. If approached or invited to apply,

Information on committee meetings can be found at www.cambridge.gov.uk/meetings

Councillors would continue to be at liberty to sit on any particular body in their own capacity.
