5 The Future Role of City Centre Management (Emma Thornton, 01223 457446)

Members of Environment Scrutiny Committee have been invited along with key city centre stakeholders.

NB – there is also a related report re. an earlier request at Environment Scrutiny in January, when the committee was considering the Service Plan for Economic Development and Tourism, Cllr Durrant asked that consideration be given to resurfacing the roads in the Market Square as part of the long term objective described as "Deliver the successful enhancement of the Market Square and cultural quarter around Peas Hill and Wheeler Street to secure a vibrant heart to a growing city". Cllr Reid said that this came under the remit of the Executive Councillor for CS&R in relation to the Market and the developments of the Guildhall.
