A FANTASTIC OPPORTUNITY FOR GREATER CAMBRIDGE

Land west of the Cambridge North station is one of the last remaining significant brownfield sites in Cambridge. It presents an opportunity to create a new sustainable City District, making a significant contribution to Greater Cambridge’s future growth needs.

PREVIOUS CONSULTATION

Initial consultation in December 2014 explored potential redevelopment options. However, odour from the existing Water Recycling Centre significantly constrained the prospects for the area’s regeneration. Work was therefore put on hold.
