Cambridge City Council Complaints Easy Read Guide

We want to know when we get things wrong

Please tell us if you want to complain about any of our services. We will do our best to put things right. We will then try to make sure that the same thing does not happen again to you or anyone else

We also want to know when we have done things well

We will tell our staff about this. Then they can use the information to make other services better for you and others

How we will deal with your complaint:

Staff will be polite and tell you their name

We will use plain language

We will provide an interpreter if you need one

If you visit us, you can bring a friend or a family member to help you

What do you want us to do to make things right?

What happens next?

We will aim to respond to your complaint within 10 working days

If we need more time, we let you know and explain why.

We will also tell you who is dealing with your complaint and when they will contact you

If we don't solve your problem you can ask us to look at it again.

This will be done at the second stage of our process by a Head of Service

Who else can look at your complaint?

If you are not happy with Cambridge City Council's reply to your complaint, you can contact:

Local Government Ombudsman

They are the final stage for complaints. You can contact them at anytime but will usually only look at your complaint after we have looked at it
