

- 1) The details of the contracts your authority had with Carillion, which were still outstanding when the firm collapsed in January 2018.
- 2) These would be divided into the size of each contract you still had with the firm, details concerning the individual contracts, and the degree to which the developments had been completed in January 2018.
- 3) Whether you have reached any solutions on these contract issues eg. did your authority pay for the costs instead?/ are you still battling Carillion for the money.
- 4) If the individual contracts were ever completed.

The answer to question 1 is: None.
